

News

National Training Agency

38 Life Skills Trainers Graduate from Tobago

On Friday 7th October, 2016 the National Life Skills Unit hosted its graduation ceremony at the MIC Institute of Technology Building, 79 Milford Road, Canaan, Tobago. The graduates participated in the Unit's Train the Trainer programme intended to strengthen the capability of Life Skills Educators to effectively deliver the National Life Skills Education Programme in their respective agencies.

From left to right: Mr. Steve M. P. Arman, Chief Executive Officer, NTA; Apostle Dawn Gray, Graduate.

Representatives from the following institutions were in attendance:

- The National Training Agency (NTA)
- MIC-IT
- Tobago Regional Health Authority
- Trinidad and Tobago Cadet Force
- Tobago Council for Handicapped Children
- Dawn's Evangelical Ministry
- On-The-Job Training (OJT) Programme
- Scarborough Centre for Youth Development
- Division of Community Development and Culture, Tobago House of Assembly
- Division of Health & Social Services, Tobago House of Assembly
- Tobago Institute for Literacy

From left to right: Mrs. Angela Iloo, Manager, National Life Skills Unit, NTA; Councillor Dr. Denise Tsolafait-Angus, Secretary, Community Development and Culture, Tobago House of Assembly; Mr. Steve M. P. Arman, Chief Executive Officer, NTA

This achievement further emphasizes the need to develop our nation's workforce through the implementation of initiatives like the National Life Skills Education Programme, and the importance of lifelong learning and further development towards building healthy and productive citizens. At the event the Life Skills Unit, a division of the National Training Agency renewed its commitment to fostering working relationships with relevant training institutions in Tobago, towards fulfilling the goals of the Life Skills programme. All participants received a certificate of participation from the National Life Skills Unit, National Training Agency at the graduation ceremony.

The Trinidad Express Newspaper recognizes the National Life Skills Education Train the Trainer Graduates from Tobago.

